

Last Coupling You'll Ever Need

Cat reusable couplings for XT Hose feature an exclusive two-piece design that reduces your biggest hose repair expense.

Guaranteed or we replace them free

Cat reusable couplings for XT Hose are the last couplings you'll ever need. A unique design lets you reuse couplings even after the hose is worn out. That means you:

- Save an average of 30% or more off the cost of assemblies with permanent couplings
- Don't need to purchase a new coupling every time you replace worn hose—saving money time and time again
- Always have a ready inventory of couplings, so you can get back to work quickly

Plus, Cat reusable couplings for XT Hose are guaranteed against failure—or we'll replace them free of charge. (Guarantee excludes failure caused by abuse, neglect, or fire; or improper use, installation, or repair.)
